

Copyright And Related Rights Act

And

THE ACT ON AMENDMENTS TO THE COPYRIGHT AND RELATED RIGHTS ACT

NN 173/2003 in force from October 30, 2003

*NN 79/2007 in force from August 7, 2007

Zagreb, Semptember 2007

SUBJECT MATTER OF THE ACT

Article 1

This Act regulates:

1. copyright - rights of authors in respect of their works in the literary, scientific and artistic domains;
2. related rights:
 - a. performer's rights in respect of their performances;
 - b. rights of producers of phonograms in respect of their phonograms;
 - c. film producer's rights (producers of videograms) in respect of their videograms;
 - d. broadcasting organizations' rights in respect of their broadcasts;
 - e. publishers' rights in respect of their publications;
 - f. rights of producers of databases in respect of their databases;
3. management (individual and collective) of copyright and related rights;
4. protection of copyright and related rights in the case of infringement;
5. scope of the Act.

COPYRIGHT AND RELATED RIGHTS

Article 2

- (1) Copyright shall belong, by its nature, to a natural person who has created a copyright work.
- (2) Performer's right shall belong, by its nature, to a natural person who has performed a work from the literary or artistic domain, or the expressions of folklore.
- (3) The holder of other related rights may be any natural and legal person, unless otherwise provided by law.
- (4) Copyright and related rights may be limited against the will of their holders only under the conditions and in the manner regulated by law.

DISCLOSURE, PUBLICATION, THE PUBLIC AND PUBLIC USE

Article 3

- (1) A copyright work or a subject matter of a related right shall be considered to have been disclosed if it has been made available to the public with the consent of the right holder.

- (2) A copyright work or a subject matter of a related right shall be considered published if, with the consent of the right holder, copies of that work or subject matter of a related right respectively have been offered to the public or put into circulation in the quantity sufficient to satisfy reasonable needs of the public.
- (3) The public, under this Act, shall mean a larger number of persons that are outside the usual circle of persons closely tied with family or other personal relations.
- (4) Public use of a copyright work shall be considered any use of a copyright work and a subject matter of related rights that is accessible to the public, or such use in the area that is accessible to members of the public, as well as, providing to members of the public access to the work and subject matters of related rights at a time and from a place individually chosen by them.

RELATION BETWEEN COPYRIGHT AND RELATED RIGHTS

Article 4

- (1) The protection of related rights under this Act shall leave intact and shall in no way prejudice the protection of copyright. No provision of this Act concerning the protection of related rights shall be interpreted in a way to prejudice the protection of copyright. The exercise of the performers' rights of communication to the public of fixed performances referred to in Article 125, item 4, subparagraph 2 of this Act must not prejudice the exercise of copyright.
- (2) The provisions of this Act concerning the definitions of particular economic rights of the author, as well as the right to remuneration for reproduction of works for private or other personal use, and the right to remuneration for public lending, exceptions and limitations of copyright, the beginning of the terms of protection and the effects of expiration of the terms of copyright, legal transactions of copyright, and the relation between copyright and ownership shall apply mutatis mutandis to related rights, unless otherwise specially provided for them, or arising from their legal nature.

II. COPYRIGHT

Chapter 1 SUBJECT MATTERS

COPYRIGHT WORK

Article 5

- (1) A copyright work shall be an original intellectual creation in the literary, scientific and artistic domain, having an individual character, irrespective of the manner and form of its expression, its type, value or purpose, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.
- (2) Copyright works shall be in particular:
 - works of language (written works, oral works, and computer programs);
 - musical works with or without words;
 - dramatic or dramatico-musical works;
 - choreographic works and works of pantomime;
 - works of visual art (in the field of painting, sculpture, and graphics), irrespective of the material they are made of, and other works of visual arts;
 - works of architecture;
 - works of applied art and industrial design;
 - photographic works and works produced by a process similar to photography;
 - audiovisual works (cinematographic works, and works created in a manner similar to cinematographic creation);
 - cartographic works;
 - presentations of a scientific or technical nature such as drawings, plans, sketches, tables, etc.
- (3) The subject matter of copyright may be any copyright work, except the one, which cannot be such work by its nature, and the one for which the provisions of this Act provide that it cannot be the subject matter of copyright.
- (4) The subject matter of copyright is the work as a whole, including an unfinished work, the title of a work, and the parts thereof that fulfil the pre-conditions set out in paragraph (1) of this Article.

- (5) The title of the work, which does not fulfil the pre-conditions for being the subject matter of copyright, and which has already been used for a certain work, shall not be used for the same kind of work, if such title is likely to create confusion as to the author of the work.

ALTERATIONS

Article 6

- (1) Translations, adaptations, musical adaptations and other alterations of a copyright work, which are original individual intellectual creations, shall be protected as independent works.
- (2) Translations of official texts in the domain of legislation, administration and judiciary, shall be protected, unless made for the purpose of officially informing the public and are disclosed as such.
- (3) Provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall not affect the rights of the authors of the works, which have been altered.

COLLECTIONS AND DATABASES

Article 7

- (1) Collections of independent works, data or other materials, such as encyclopaedias, collections of documents, anthologies, databases, and the like, which by reason of the selection or arrangement of their constituent elements constitute personal intellectual creations of their authors shall be protected as such.
- (2) The protection enjoyed by the collection referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, shall not extend to its contents and shall in no way prejudice the rights subsisting in the works and subject matters of related rights included in the collection.
- (3) Databases, under this Act, shall be collections arranged according to certain system or method, the elements of which are individually accessible by electronic or other means.
- (4) The protection provided for in this Act for databases, shall not apply to computer programs used in the making of databases accessible by electronic means or in the operation thereof.

UNPROTECTED CREATIONS

Article 8

- (1) The subject matter of copyright shall include expressions and not ideas, procedures, methods of operation or mathematical concepts as such.
- (2) The subject matter of copyright shall not include:
 1. discoveries, official texts in the domain of legislation, administration, judiciary (acts, regulations, decisions, reports, minutes, judgments, standards, and the like) and other official works and their collections, disclosed for the purpose of officially informing the public;
 2. news of the day and other news, having the character of mere items of press information;
- (3) Folk literary and artistic creations in their original form shall not be the subject matter of copyright, but their communication to the public is subject to the payment of remuneration, as for the communication to the public of protected copyright works. The remuneration shall be the revenue of the budget, and shall be used for improving the creativity in the field concerned.

Chapter 2 AUTHORS

THE AUTHOR

Article 9

- (1) The author of the work is a natural person who has created the work.
- (2) Copyright in a work belongs to its author by the mere act of the creation of the work.

AUTHORS OF COMPOUND WORKS

Article 10

- (1) If two or more authors join their created works for the purpose of a joint use, each of them shall keep the copyright in his own work.
- (2) Mutual relations between authors of the compound works shall be regulated by a contract. Unless otherwise provided by a contract or by rules set out in Article 167, paragraph (1) of this Act, all the authors of a compound work shall be considered to be entitled to an equal share in the remuneration to be obtained for the use of such compound work.

CO-AUTHORS

Article 11

- (1) Co-authors of a work shall be the persons who created the work jointly, and whose contributions cannot be used independently.
- (2) Co-authors shall have a joint copyright in the created work, so a part of such copyright calculated in proportion to the whole copyright (co-authors' shares) shall belong to each of them.
- (3) When in doubt as to the co-authors' shares, they shall be considered to be equal.
- (4) The consent of all the co-authors shall be needed for the disclosure, use and alteration of such work. An individual co-author shall not refuse to give his consent for the reason, which is contrary to the principle of conscientiousness and fairness, nor shall undertake any action, which unjustifiably prejudices or could be prejudicial to the legitimate interests of other co-authors. If the consent of all the authors concerning disclosure, use or alteration of their work has not been achieved, the decision to that effect shall be made by the court, at a request of any of the co-authors.
- (5) A share of each co-author in the benefits deriving from the use of the work corresponds to his co-author's part, unless otherwise provided for by a contract regulating their mutual relations.

PRESUMPTION OF AUTHORSHIP AND EXERCISE OF COPYRIGHT WHERE THE AUTHOR IS ANONYMOUS

Article 12

- (1) The author is presumed to be a person whose name, pseudonym, artist's mark or code appears in the customary manner on the copies of the work or when the work is disclosed, until proven to the contrary.
- (2) If the author is not known, nor can be defined pursuant to the provision of paragraph (1) of this Article, the following shall be considered entitled to exercise copyright:
 1. for a published work - the publisher who has lawfully published the work;

2. for a disclosed, but unpublished work - the person who has lawfully disclosed the work.
 - (3) The provisions of paragraph (2) of this Article shall cease to apply once the author's identity has become known, in which case the publisher or the person who disclosed the work, shall deliver to the author the economic benefits derived from the exercise of his right, according to the rules concerning the legal status of a fair possessor who must deliver the object to its owner, unless otherwise provided for by a contract.
- (2) A person who publicly uses a copyright work, shall be obliged to indicate the author at each use, unless the author has declared in a written form that he does not want to be indicated, or if the manner of a certain use is such that prevents the indication of the author.

RIGHT OF RESPECT FOR THE WORK AND HONOUR OR REPUTATION OF THE AUTHOR

Article 16

The author shall have the right to oppose to any distortion, mutilation and similar modification of his work, and to destruction and any use of the work, in a manner jeopardizing his honour or reputation.

Chapter 3
CONTENT OF COPYRIGHT

CONTENT OF RIGHT

Article 13

- (1) Copyright shall include moral rights, economic rights and other rights of authors.
- (2) Copyright shall protect personal and intellectual ties of the author with his work (moral rights of the author), economic interests of the author in respect of his copyright work (economic rights of the author) and other interests of the author in respect of his work (other rights of the author).
- (3) The author is entitled to remuneration for each use of his work, unless otherwise provided for by this Act or by a contract.

3.1. Moral rights of the author

RIGHT OF FIRST DISCLOSURE

Article 14

- (1) The author shall have the right to determine whether, when, where, how and under what circumstances his copyright work will be disclosed for the first time.
- (2) Until the copyright work is disclosed, the author shall have the right to reveal to the public the content or description of his work.

RIGHT OF RECOGNITION OF AUTHORSHIP

Article 15

- (1) The author shall have the right to be recognized and indicated as the author of the work.

RIGHT OF REVOCATION

Article 17

- (1) The author shall have the right to revoke a right of exploitation of his copyright work and its further use, compensating the damages to the user of such right, where further use would be prejudicial to his honour or reputation. Such right shall also be exercised by the author's heirs, if the author decided so in his will, or if they prove that the author, prior to his death, was entitled and tried to exercise such right, but was prevented from doing so.
- (2) The revocation referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be effective from the day when the author deposits the security for the compensation for damages referred to in paragraph (3) of this Article.
- (3) The user of the right of exploitation of a copyright work shall, within three months as from the receipt of the notification of revocation referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, communicate to the author the amount of outstanding costs incurred to him in the preparation for the use of his work up to the day of receipt of such notification. If the holder of the right of exploitation of a copyright work fails to do so, the notification of revocation shall become effective at the expiration of the time limit referred to in this paragraph.

- (4) If, within ten years as from his exercise of the right of revocation, the author decides to resume the exploitation of the work in respect to which he exercised his right of revocation, he shall be required to offer such right, under previous conditions, first to the person to whom such right was revoked.
- (5) The author may not renounce the right of revocation.
- (6) The provisions of this Article shall not apply to electronic databases and computer programs.

3.2. Economic rights of the author

GENERAL

Article 18

The author shall have the exclusive right to do with his copyright work and the benefits deriving from it whatever he likes, and to exclude any other person from it, unless otherwise provided for by the law. This right shall include in particular:

- right of reproduction (right of multiplication);
- right of distribution (right to put into circulation);
- right of communication of the work to the public;
- right of alteration

REPRODUCTION

Article 19

- (1) The right of reproduction shall be the exclusive right of making one or more copies of copyright works, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, temporarily or permanently, by any means and in any form. The right of reproduction includes fixation which shall mean the fixing of copyright works in the material or other corresponding medium.
- (2) A copyright work is fixed and reproduced in particular by graphic procedures, photocopying and other photographic procedures with the same effect, by sound or visual recording, by building or carrying out works of architecture, by storage of the work in electronic form, and by fixing of the work transmitted by computer's net on a material medium.

DISTRIBUTION AND RENTAL

Article 20

- (1) The right of distribution shall be the exclusive right to put into circulation the original or copies of the work by sale or otherwise, and to offer them to the public for such purpose.
- (2) The first sale of the original or copies of the work or other form of transfer of ownership, by the author or with his consent, in the territory of the Republic of Croatia shall exhaust the right of distribution in respect of such original and such copies respectively, for the territory of the Republic of Croatia. The exhaustion of the distribution right shall not cause the right of rental of a copyright work to expire, the right of the author to authorize or prohibit the export to or the import from a certain country of the original or copies of the work, and the right to remuneration for public lending of the work under Article 33 of this Act. In respect of collections, the exhaustion of the distribution right shall refer only to further sale.
- (3) The rental, under this Act, shall mean the making available for use of the original or copies of the work, for a limited period of time, and for direct or indirect economic or commercial benefit.
- (4) The right of rental of a copyright work, under this Act, shall not apply to already made architectural works and works of applied art.
- (5) The author who has given up his right of rental in favour of a producer of phonograms or of a film producer, or to any other person shall retain the right to receive equitable remuneration for the rental of his copyright work. The author may not renounce the right to the equitable remuneration. The remuneration for rental shall be paid by the person renting the copyright work.

COMMUNICATION OF A COPYRIGHT WORK TO THE PUBLIC

Article 21

The author shall have the exclusive right to communicate his work to the public. This right shall include in particular:

- right of public performance;
- right of public stage presentation;

BROADCASTING

Article 27

- (1) The right of broadcasting shall mean the exclusive right to communicate a copyright work to the public by radio or television program-carrying signals, intended for reception by the public, either by wireless means (including satellite), or by wire (including cable or microwave systems).
- (2) A satellite, for the purposes of this Act, shall mean any satellite operating on frequency bands reserved for the broadcasts of signals intended for reception by the public, or for closed, point-to-point communication. If a closed, point-to-point communication is concerned, the circumstances in which individual reception of the signals takes place must be comparable to those in which public reception of the signals takes place.
- (3) Communication to the public by satellite, referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, shall exist where under the control and responsibility of the broadcasting organization program-carrying signals intended for the reception by the public are introduced into an uninterrupted chain of communication leading to the satellite and down towards the earth.
- (4) Where the program-carrying signals referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article are encrypted, communication to the public shall be deemed to have occurred on condition that the means for decrypting such signals are provided to the public by the broadcasting organization, or with its consent.

REBROADCASTING

Article 28

The right of rebroadcasting shall mean the exclusive right to a simultaneous, unaltered and unabridged communication to the public of a broadcast of a copyright work:

1. where made by a broadcasting organization other than the one who initially broadcasted the work;
2. where made by cable or microwave system (cable retransmission).

PUBLIC COMMUNICATION OF BROADCASTING

Article 29

ALTERATIONS OF THE WORK

Article 31

The right of alteration shall mean the exclusive right to translate, adapt, musically arrange or otherwise modify a work.

3.3. Other rights of the author

3.3.1 Rights to remuneration

RIGHT TO REMUNERATION FOR REPRODUCTION OF A COPYRIGHT WORK FOR PRIVATE OR OTHER PERSONAL USE

Article 32

- (1) Where a copyright work may be reproduced without the author's authorization pursuant to Article 82 of this Act, the author whose works are, due to their nature, expected to be reproduced without authorization, by photocopying or by recording on sound, visual or text fixation mediums, for private or other personal use, shall have the right to an appropriate remuneration upon sale of technical appliances and blank audio, video or text fixation mediums.
- (2) Apart from the right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the authors shall have a right to an appropriate remuneration to be obtained from a natural or legal person who provides services of photocopying against payment.

- (3) Any other reproduction techniques shall be assimilated to photocopying, and any other appliances providing the same effect shall be assimilated to appliances for sound or visual recording.
- (4) The remuneration referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be paid by manufacturers of appliances for sound and visual recording, manufacturers of appliances for photocopying, manufacturers of blank audio, video or text fixation mediums, and jointly and severally with them importers of appliances for sound and visual recording, photocopying, blank audio, video or text fixation mediums, unless such imports concerns small quantities intended for private and non-commercial use, forming part of personal luggage. If the mentioned appliances and objects are not produced in the Republic of Croatia, the remuneration shall be paid by the importer.
- (5) The obligation to pay the appropriate remuneration referred to in paragraph (1) shall arise:
 1. in respect of the first sale in the Republic of Croatia or import in the Republic of Croatia of new appliances for sound and visual recording;
 2. in respect of the first sale in the Republic of Croatia or import in the Republic of Croatia of new blank audio or video fixation media;
 3. in respect of the first sale in the Republic of Croatia or import in the Republic of Croatia of new photocopying appliances.
- (6) The remuneration referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article shall be paid in the amount depending on the information on the number of photocopies made.
- (7) Authors may not renounce the rights to remuneration referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article.

RIGHT TO REMUNERATION FOR PUBLIC LENDING

Article 33

- (1) The author shall have the right to equitable remuneration where the original or copies of his work of which further distribution is

- admissible, have been lent through public libraries.
- (2) The lending, under this Act, shall mean making available for use for a limited period of time and without direct or indirect economic or commercial benefit.
- (3) Provisions referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply to:
- (1) buildings and works of applied art;
 - (2) works that are mutually lent by institutions referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (4) The author may not renounce the right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (5) By way of derogation from the provision of paragraph (1) of this Article, authors of databases shall have the exclusive right of public lending of the originals or copies of their databases.
- photography, where created by the author himself.
- (2) Copies of works of visual art which have been made in limited numbers by the artist himself or under his authority, shall be considered to be originals of works of visual art, referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article. Such copies shall normally be numbered, signed or authorized by the author.

3.3.2 Resale right

GENERAL

Article 34

- (1) If the original of a work of visual art is resold, the author shall have the right to equitable share in the selling price for each time his original is resold after its first alienation by the author.
- (2) The right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply to all acts of resale involving as sellers, buyers or intermediaries art market professionals, such as public auctions, art galleries or other art dealers.
- (3) By way of derogation, the provision referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply, where the seller is an art gallery which has acquired the work directly from the author less than three years before that resale and where the resale price does not exceed the equivalent value of EUR 10 000 in HRK.
- (1) A seller who resells the work referred to in Article 35 of this Act, at a price exceeding the equivalent amount of EUR 500 in HRK, shall pay to the author the equivalent amount in HRK of:
1. 5% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 500.00 to 50,000.00;
 2. 3% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 50,000.01 to 200,000.00;
 3. 1% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 200,000.01 to 350,000.00;
 4. 0.5% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 350,000.01 to 500,000.00;
 5. 0.25% for the portion of the selling price exceeding EUR 500,000.00;
- (2) The total amount, which, on the basis of the provision referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article belongs to the author, shall not exceed the equivalent amount of EUR 12,500.00 in HRK. Base for calculation of such amount shall be the selling price without tax.
- (3) If the resale of the original has been effected through a public auction, an art gallery or by intermediary of any other art dealer, the organizer of the public auction, the owner of the art gallery or the art dealer, shall share joint and several liability with the seller for the payment of the amount belonging to the author.

ORIGINAL OF A WORK OF VISUAL ART

Article 35

- (1) The original of a work of visual art, referred to in Article 34, paragraph (1) of this Act, shall mean a work of visual art such as picture, collage, painting, drawing, engraving, print, lithography, sculpture, tapestry, ceramics, glassware or

AMOUNT BELONGING TO THE AUTHOR

Article 36

- (1) A seller who resells the work referred to in Article 35 of this Act, at a price exceeding the equivalent amount of EUR 500 in HRK, shall pay to the author the equivalent amount in HRK of:
1. 5% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 500.00 to 50,000.00;
 2. 3% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 50,000.01 to 200,000.00;
 3. 1% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 200,000.01 to 350,000.00;
 4. 0.5% for the portion of the selling price from EUR 350,000.01 to 500,000.00;
 5. 0.25% for the portion of the selling price exceeding EUR 500,000.00;
- (2) The total amount, which, on the basis of the provision referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article belongs to the author, shall not exceed the equivalent amount of EUR 12,500.00 in HRK. Base for calculation of such amount shall be the selling price without tax.
- (3) If the resale of the original has been effected through a public auction, an art gallery or by intermediary of any other art dealer, the organizer of the public auction, the owner of the art gallery or the art dealer, shall share joint and several liability with the seller for the payment of the amount belonging to the author.

RENOUNCEMENT, TRANSFERABILITY AND EXECUTION OF RESALE RIGHT

Article 37

- (1) The author cannot renounce his resale right.
- (2) The resale right shall not be transferred by legal transactions during the author's life. After the death of the author, the resale right passes on to his heirs, and the remuneration therefrom shall be paid to them.

- (3) The resale right shall not be subject to execution.

RIGHT TO RECEIVE INFORMATION

Article 38

For a period of three years after the resale of his work, the author shall have the right to require from any person referred to in Article 34, paragraph (2) of this Act, to furnish any information that is necessary in order to secure payment of the amount that belongs to him in respect of the resale.

3.3.3 Other additional rights

RIGHT OF ACCESS TO THE WORK

Article 39

- (1) The author shall have a right to require from the owner or direct possessor of the original or a copy of his work to allow him access to the work, if such access is necessary for making copies of the work or its alteration under the provision of Article 31, paragraph (1) of this Act, and is not contrary to any legitimate interests of the owner or possessor.
- (2) Provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article do not oblige the owner or direct possessor to deliver to the author the original or a copy of the work.

RIGHT TO PROHIBIT PUBLIC EXHIBITIONS OF THE WORK

Article 40

- (1) The author of an undisclosed work of visual art, applied art, industrial design, and an undisclosed photographic work, shall have upon alienation of the original or a copy of his work, the right to prohibit to its owner to exhibit the work to the public.
- (2) The author shall prohibit the public exhibition referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, in the written form.
- (3) The author shall not have the right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, if the work belongs to a museum, gallery or other similar public institution.

Chapter 4 COPYRIGHT IN LEGAL

TRANSACTIONS

4.1 Basic Provisions

INHERITANCE OF COPYRIGHT

Article 41

- (1) Copyright shall be inheritable.
- (2) All the rights that would belong to the author shall belong to his heirs, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.
- (3) General regulations on inheritance shall apply to all other matters related to inheritance of copyright, which are not regulated by this Act.

TRANSFERABILITY OF COPYRIGHT

Article 42

- (1) Copyright shall not be transferable, except by inheritance and transfer for the benefit of coheirs in the case of dissolution of community of heirs.
- (2) Other dispositions of copyright shall be allowed, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.

EXECUTION

Article 43

- (1) Copyright shall not be subject to execution. Only economic benefits acquired in the use of a copyright work may be subject to execution, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.
- (2) If the author has, by non-finishing of work or non-publishing of manuscript, breached a contractual obligation, he shall not be forced to fulfil it, but shall be liable for damage resulting from it.

DISPOSITION OF COPYRIGHT BY GRANTING A RIGHT OF EXPLOITATION

Article 44

- (1) The author may grant to another person a right of exploitation of a copyright work or may entrust him the exercise of copyright by a contract, by giving the authorization for use, or by other legal transaction.
- (2) The author may grant to another person a right on the basis of which he will be able to use a copyright work in any or in a certain manner (the right of exploitation of a copyright work). The right of exploitation may be granted as an exclusive or a non-exclusive right, limited in terms of content, time or space.

- (3) The holder of the exclusive right of exploitation may use a copyright work in a manner which complies with the content of his right and exclude any other person, including the author, from such use, unless otherwise provided by this Act. When granting the exclusive right of exploitation, it may be defined that the author reserves the right of use of the copyright work.
- (4) The non-exclusive right of exploitation shall entitle its holder to use the copyright work in a manner which complies with the content of his right, but it does not entitle him to prevent other persons from any use of that work.
- (5) If the manner of use of a copyright work has not been expressly indicated when the right was granted, it shall be considered that the person acquiring the right has acquired a right to use a copyright work in a manner necessary to satisfy the purpose of a legal transaction on the basis of which the right has been acquired. If from the purpose of the legal transaction it cannot be established whether the right was granted as an exclusive or a non-exclusive right, limited as to territory, it shall be considered that it was granted as a non-exclusive right for the territory of the Republic of Croatia.
- (6) The author shall refrain from acts that would impede the holder of the right of exploitation to exercise his right.

NON-EXERCISE OF THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF EXPLOITATION

Article 45

If the holder of the exclusive right of exploitation does not exercise his right or exercises it insufficiently, prejudicing thereby legitimate interests of the author, the author may demand revocation of the exclusive right of exploitation. The author shall not have such right, if the holder of the exclusive right of exploitation proves that he is not responsible for the reasons causing the non-exercise of the right.

LATER GRANT OF THE EXPLOITATION RIGHT

Article 46

Later grant of the exploitation right, even the exclusive one, shall not prejudice the earlier granted exploitation right, either exclusive or non-exclusive, unless otherwise provided by a contract on the grant of an earlier right.

TRANSFER OF THE RIGHT OF EXPLOITATION

Article 47

- (1) The right of exploitation may be transferred without the author's authorization from one person to another within transfer of the entire business or the part thereof constituting the entirety.
- (2) Where the right of exploitation can be transferred without the author's authorization the person acquiring the right of exploitation shall have joint and several liability for fulfilling the obligation which the person transferring such right has in respect of the author.

GRANTING OF FURTHER RIGHTS OF EXPLOITATION

Article 48

The holder of the exclusive right of exploitation may, on the basis of his right, grant to another person further right of exploitation only with the written authorization of the author. The author may not refuse to give his authorization, if it would be contrary to conscientiousness and fairness. The authorization shall not be necessary if the right of exploitation has been granted only for the sake of its exercising for the benefit of the author.

DISPOSITION OF COPYRIGHT BY ENTRUSTING THE EXERCISE THEREOF

Article 49

- (1) The author may authorize another person to exercise the copyright for his account. Copyright may be exercised for the account of the author on the basis of a legal transaction by which the author entrusts the exercise of his right, or, directly, by virtue of the law, complying with the pre-requisites provided by the law.
- (2) It shall be considered that the author has entrusted the exercise of his particular right to the collective rights management association which deals with the respective right, if the association exercises such a right for his benefit and for the benefit of other authors for their respective rights.

RENOUNCEMENT OF COPYRIGHT

Article 50

The author may not renounce his copyright.

4.2 General part of the contractual copyright

COPYRIGHT CONTRACTS

Article 51

A contract on the basis of which the right of exploitation of copyright (copyright contract) is acquired shall be concluded in a written form, unless otherwise provided by this Act.

CONTENT OF COPYRIGHT CONTRACTS

Article 52

- (1) A copyright contract shall specify at least the work it concerns, the manner of use, and the person authorized to use the work (a user).
- (2) A copyright contract may also be concluded in respect of a work which is not yet created, provided that it defines the type of the work and the manner of use of the future work.
- (3) A contractual provision concerning the grant of the right of use of all author's future works shall be null and void.

FIXING OF THE AMOUNT OF REMUNERATION FOR THE USE OF A COPYRIGHT WORK

Article 53

If the amount of remuneration has not been fixed by a legal transaction, or if the fixed amount of remuneration is not equitable, or if it has not been fixed under the provision of Article 162 of this Act, the author shall be entitled to equitable remuneration. An equitable remuneration shall be the one that has to be given fairly at the time of concluding a legal transaction, taking account of the type and scope of the use of a copyright work, its financial success in it, the kind and size of the work, the duration of use, the existence of agreement between the relevant associations of authors and the relevant association of users fixing the amount of equitable remuneration, as well as other elements on the basis of which a decision on the amount of equitable remuneration can be made.

RIGHT OF THE AUTHOR TO MODIFY A CONTRACT FOR THE PURPOSE OF MORE FAIR SHARE IN THE PROFIT

Article 54

- (1) If the profit derived from use of the work is obviously disproportional to the agreed or fixed remuneration, the author shall be entitled to demand the amendment of the agreement for the purpose of fixing more equitable share in the profit deriving from the use of his work.

- (2) The author may not renounce the right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.

APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS ON OBLIGATORY RELATIONS

Article 55

The provisions of the Act regulating obligatory relations shall apply to all the matters related to copyright contracts which are not regulated by this Act.

4.3 Special part of contractual copyright law

4.3.1 Publishing contract

GENERAL ISSUES CONCERNING THE CONTRACT

Article 56

- (1) By a publishing contract the author undertakes to grant to the publisher the right of reproduction of his particular work by printing or other similar process, and the right of distribution of the copies of the work (the right of publication), while the publisher undertakes to publish the work as agreed, and to pay to the author the agreed remuneration, unless otherwise provided by a contract, as well as to take care about a successful distribution of the copies of the work, and to provide the author with the information on the distribution of his copyright work. A publishing contract shall contain a provision on the duration of the right of publication.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided by a publishing contract, it shall be presumed that the publisher has the exclusive right to publish the work referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (3) The presumption referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article shall not apply to the right of publication of articles in daily or periodical press or publications.

RIGHT OF TRANSLATION AND OTHER RIGHTS

Article 57

By the contract referred to in Article 56 of this Act, the author may also grant to the publisher the right of translating his work in a certain language, and the right to publish such translated work, as well as other economic rights.

VERIFICATION OF ACCURACY OF INFORMATION

Article 58

- (1) The author shall have the right of insight and control, at any time, of the publisher's business records and documentation, to verify the accuracy of information provided to him by the publisher.
- (2) The author shall be authorized to require from a third person who has reproduced the work for the publisher, information concerning the number of copies made of his work, and such person shall be obliged to provide complete and true information to that effect.

EXCEPTION TO THE RULE CONCERNING OBLIGATORY WRITTEN FORM OF A CONTRACT

Article 59

A publishing contract relating to the publication of articles, drawings and other author's contributions in daily and periodical press or publications, does not need to be made in a written form (small publishing contract).

CONCLUSION OF CONTRACTS THROUGH A REPRESENTATIVE

Article 60

A representative of the author may conclude a publishing contract only for such works as are expressly indicated in the author's power of attorney.

FIXING THE AMOUNT OF REMUNERATION

Article 61

- (1) If the remuneration is fixed as a percentage of the retail price of the copies sold, the publishing contract must specify a minimum number of such copies of the first edition, and a minimum remuneration which the publisher has to pay to the author regardless of the number of copies sold.
- (2) If the remuneration is set as a lump sum, the publishing contract must specify the total number of copies agreed upon to be printed. If this number is not agreed upon, and unless otherwise deriving from fair business practices or circumstances of the case, the publisher may publish not more than 500 copies of the work.

OTHER ELEMENTS OF THE CONTRACT

Article 62

A publishing contract may also contain in particular:

- a time limit within which the author is required to deliver his correct manuscript or other original of the work. Unless otherwise provided by a contract, this time limit shall be one year from the date of the conclusion of the contract;
- a time limit within which the publisher is required to publish the work. Unless otherwise provided by a contract, this time limit shall be one year from the date of delivery of the correct manuscript or other original of the work;
- the number of the editions which the publisher is authorized to publish. Unless otherwise provided by a contract, the publisher shall have the right to publish only one edition;
- a time limit within which the publisher is required to publish a new edition, if stipulated by a contract. Unless otherwise provided by a contract, this time limit shall be one year from the date of delivery of such written request by the author;
- a provision concerning the ownership over a manuscript or other original. A manuscript or other original shall remain the ownership of the author, unless he undertakes to give it to the ownership of the publisher by virtue of a contract;
- appearance and design of the copies of the work

IMPROVEMENTS AND OTHER MODIFICATIONS OF THE WORK

Article 63

Unless otherwise provided by a publishing contract, the publisher shall be required to allow the author to make improvements or other modifications to his work when new editions are prepared, provided that this does not alter the character of the work.

DESTRUCTION OF THE MANUSCRIPT AND OF THE PREPARED EDITION

Article 64

- (1) If a manuscript or other original of the work is destroyed after its delivery to the publisher, by fault of the publisher or by force majeure, the author shall be entitled to the remuneration that would belong to him if the work had been published. If the author has another copy of the work, he shall deliver it to the publisher, at the publisher's expense.

- (2) If a prepared edition of the work is completely destroyed by force majeure before it was put into circulation, the publisher shall be entitled to prepare a new edition, and the author shall have the right to remuneration only for the destroyed edition.
- (3) If a prepared edition of the work is partially destroyed by force majeure before it was put into circulation, the publisher shall be entitled to reproduce, without payment of remuneration to the author, only that number of copies that was destroyed.

PUBLISHER'S PRIORITY RIGHT

Article 65

- (1) A publisher, who has acquired the right to publish the work, has among other publishers who offer equal terms, the priority right to publish the work in an electronic or any other form.
- (2) A publisher who intends to use the right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, shall submit his offer to the author, within 30 days as from the date of receipt of the author's written invitation.
- (3) The publisher's priority right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, shall last until the expiration of a period of two years as from the date of the conclusion of a publishing contract.

TERMINATION BY RESCINDMENT OF PUBLISHING CONTRACT

Article 66

- (1) The author may demand the rescindment of a publishing contract if the publisher does not publish the work within the stipulated time or does not proceed to publish a new edition within the stipulated time or term determined by law.
- (2) If the contract is rescind due to a publisher's fault, the author shall have, apart from the right to compensation for damages, the right to keep the remuneration received, or to demand payment of the stipulated remuneration.

- (3) A publisher may demand the rescindment of the publishing contract and claim damages, if the author does not deliver to the publisher a manuscript or other original of the work within the time limit stipulated by a contract or by the law.

DESTRUCTION OF COPIES OF THE WORK

Article 67

- (1) A publisher who intends to sell the unsold copies of the work for recycling, or otherwise destroy them, or withdraw them from circulation, shall first offer the buy off thereof to the author, at the price he would have obtained if copies were sold for recycling. If he fails to do so, he shall incur responsibility for the infringement of the moral right of the author.
- (2) If the author does not accept the publisher's offer referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, or accepts to purchase only a certain part of unsold copies, the publisher may sell the remaining copies for recycling.

4.3.2. Performance contract

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE CONTRACT

Article 68

- (1) By a contract of performance, an author gives the user the authorization for public recitation of the work or public performance of his musical work, in the manner and under conditions provided by a contract, while the user undertakes to pay to the author a stipulated remuneration for the right acquired, unless otherwise provided by a contract.
- (2) Provisions concerning a performance contract shall also apply to broadcasting and rebroadcasting, public communication of a broadcasting, public communication, public transmission and making available to the public of non-stage literary and musical works.

OTHER OBLIGATIONS OF A USER

Article 69

A user of the copyright work shall be required to allow the author to access the performance of the work, to provide for adequate technical conditions that assure respect of moral rights of the author, and to provide the author or his representative with a list of performed works, and to inform the author of the profit derived from the performance of his work, unless otherwise provided by a contract.

CESSATION OF AUTHORIZATION

Article 70

The authorization for public recitation, or public performance of a musical work, shall cease if the user does not use the work in the manner and under conditions provided by the authorization.

4.3.3. Contract on stage presentation of the work

GENERAL ISSUES CONCERNING THE CONTRACT

Article 71

- (1) By a contract on stage presentation, an author grants to the user the right of public stage presentation of a certain work, while the user undertakes to present the work on stage in the manner, within a time limit and under conditions provided by a contract, and to pay remuneration, unless otherwise provided by a contract.
- (2) The provisions concerning a contract on stage presentation shall also apply to broadcasting and rebroadcasting, public communication of a broadcasting, public communication, public transmission and making available to the public of stage presentations of the work, as well as public performance of stage works in the non-stage manner.

OTHER OBLIGATIONS OF USERS

Article 72

The provisions of Articles 69 of this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to the contract on stage presentation of a copyright work.

4.3.4. Contract on the creation of copyright work on commission

GENERAL ISSUES CONCERNING THE CONTRACT

Article 73

By a contract on the creation of a copyright work on commission, an author undertakes to create a certain work and deliver a copy of such work to the person commissioning the work, while the latter undertakes to pay to the author a stipulated remuneration, unless otherwise provided by the contract.

CONTENT OF THE CONTRACT

Article 74

- (1) The contract on the creation of a copyright work made on commission shall also specify characteristics, elements and time limits for delivering the commissioned work.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided by this Act or by a contract, the copyright in the commissioned work shall be retained by the author without limitations.

4.3.5. Copyright works created while executing employment contract

COPYRIGHT WORK CREATED IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

Article 75

Copyright work created in the course of employment shall, under this Act, mean the work created by an author - an employee in the execution of his duties with a certain employer or following the instructions given by him. The relations with regard to a copyright work created in the course of employment shall be regulated by this Act, by an employment contract or by other act regulating the employment.

RIGHTS TO USE THE COPYRIGHT WORK CREATED IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

Article 76

If copyright works are created in the course of employment, the employment contract shall specify, among other things, whether the employer acquires the right to use the copyright works, and if he acquires it, it shall specify in particular the scope and duration of such right. Unless otherwise provided by this Act, or by an employment contract or by other act regulating employment, the copyright in the work created in the course of employment shall be retained by the author without limitations.

Chapter 5 RELATION BETWEEN COPYRIGHT AND OWNERSHIP

GENERAL

Article 77

- (1) Copyright is individual and independent from ownership and other proprietary rights in an object on which the work is fixed.

- (2) Ownership and other proprietary rights in an object on which a copyright work is fixed shall not be, without the authorization of the holder, exercised contrary to copyright, unless otherwise provided by this Act.

INDEPENDENCE OF LEGAL TRANSACTIONS

Article 78

- (1) Disposition of copyright shall not affect the ownership in an object on which the work is fixed, unless otherwise provided by the law or a contract.
- (2) Disposition of ownership in an object on which the copyright work is fixed, shall not affect the copyright in such work, unless otherwise provided by the law or a contract.

DESTRUCTION OF COPYRIGHT WORK

Article 79

- (1) The owner of an original of a copyright work who knows or has reasonable grounds to know that the author or any of the co-authors has a special interest in saving such original from destruction, shall be obliged, before destroying it, to notify them about the destruction and shall offer them to buy off the original at a price equivalent to its real value. Where the return of the original to the possession of the author is not possible, the owner shall allow the author to make a copy of the work in a corresponding manner. If the author does not want to buy off the original, the owner is free to destroy it, but shall, at the author's request, allow him to photograph it before destruction.
- (2) The owner of objects containing copies of a copyright work shall not have obligations referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, unless he knows or has reasonable grounds to know that neither the original nor other copies of that work exist.
- (3) The owner of the object on which a copyright work has been fixed without his authorization, may destroy the object, without obligations referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article.
- (4) The provisions set out in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply to works of architecture. The owner of a work of architecture shall only be obliged to notify the author about the destruction, and shall allow him, at his request, to photograph the work and shall deliver to him a copy of the design of the work.

- (5) In respect of alterations of a work of architecture the interests of its owner must be taken into account. The author of a work of architecture shall not oppose to alterations of his work of architecture, which are necessitated by severe reasons such as safety or technical reasons. Where the work of architecture needs reconstruction, his author shall not oppose to the use of other materials, if the materials used in the construction thereof proved to have deficiencies, or if such materials could not be obtained, or if they can be obtained only with disproportionate difficulties or expenses. In such a case the author, where the work is designated by his name, shall be entitled to demand that the owner of the building, beside the name of the author make a note concerning alterations of the work and the time they were made.
- (6) If the owner acts contrary to the provisions of this Article, he shall be responsible for the infringement of the author's moral rights.

Chapter 6

CONTENT LIMITATIONS ON COPYRIGHT

COMMON PROVISIONS

Article 80

Disclosed copyright work may be used without the author's authorization, or without the author's authorization and without payment of remuneration, only in the cases which are expressly stipulated in this Act. The provisions concerning the limitations referred to in this Chapter cover only such uses of a copyright work which do not conflict with regular use of the work and do not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the author.

TEMPORARY ACTS OF REPRODUCTION OF THE COPYRIGHT WORK

Article 81

Temporary acts of reproduction of the copyright work, which are transient or incidental, and constitute an integral and essential part of a technological process, whose sole purpose is to enable a transmission in a network between third parties by an intermediary, or authorized use of the work, and which have no independent economic significance, shall be excluded from the exclusive right of reproduction referred to in Article 19, paragraph (1) of this Act. The provisions of this Article shall not affect the provisions of Article 97 of this Act.

REPRODUCTION OF THE WORK FOR PRIVATE OR OTHER PERSONAL USE

Article 82

A natural person may reproduce a copyright work in any medium if he does so for private use, or in the form of photocopying and other personal use if this copy is not intended for or accessible to the public and has no direct or indirect commercial purpose. It shall not be permitted to reproduce the whole book, unless the copies of such book have been sold out for at least two years, graphic editions of musical works (hereinafter: sheet music), electronic databases, cartographic works, nor the building of architectural structures, unless otherwise provided by this Act or a contract.

EPHEMERAL RECORDINGS

Article 83

- (1) Broadcasting organization, which has the authorization to broadcast a work, may record it on audio, video or text fixation mediums, by means of its own facilities and for its own needs (ephemeral recordings).
- (2) Broadcasting organization is obliged to destroy its ephemeral recordings referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, at the latest one month after such a broadcast, or deposit them in its own or public official archive, where such recordings have particular documentary value.
- (3) Ephemeral recordings that are deposited in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article, may not be rebroadcast without the authorization of the right holder.

RESTRICTIONS FOR THE BENEFIT OF PARTICULAR INSTITUTIONS

Article 84

Public archives, public libraries, educational and scientific institutions, preschool educational institutions and social (charitable) institutions pursuing non-commercial purposes may reproduce the work from their own copy to any media in not more than one copy.

COLLECTIONS INTENDED FOR TEACHING OR SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

Article 85

- (1) It shall be permitted to reproduce on paper or any similar medium and distribute particular portions (parts) of lawfully disclosed works, or integral short works from the domain of science, literature and music, as well as disclosed individual works of visual arts, architecture, applied arts and industrial design, photographic or cartographic works, and presentations of scientific or technical nature, in the form of a collection which contains contributions of several authors, and which is, by its contents, and systematisation exclusively intended for teaching or scientific research, as long as the source is indicated, unless the author expressly prohibits it. Reproduction and distribution of particular parts of copyright works shall not be considered as infringement referred to in Article 16 of this Act, unless the disclosure of particular part would jeopardize the honour or reputation of the author.

- (2) The authors of the works included in the collection referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, are entitled to an equitable remuneration for the reproduction and distribution of their works.

USE OF COPYRIGHT WORKS BY DISABLED PERSONS

Article 86

The use of copyright works for the benefit of people with a disability shall be permitted where the work is used in a manner directly related to the disability of such people to the extent required by the specific disability, and where such use is of a non-commercial nature.

USE OF COPYRIGHT WORKS FOR JUDICIAL, ADMINISTRATIVE OR OTHER OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Article 87

- (1) It shall be permitted to reproduce copyright works for the use in judicial, administrative and, except for collections, in arbitration or other official proceedings.
- (2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to communication to the public of copies of the works, which are made for the purpose of official proceedings.

USE OF THE WORKS FOR TEACHING

Article 88

It shall be permitted to publicly perform a work or to present it at stage in the form of direct teaching or at school events, to the extent justified by the educational purpose thereof to be achieved by such communication, where the works are not used for direct or indirect economic or commercial benefit by the educational institution, the organizers or third persons, where the performers receive no payment (remuneration) for their performance and where the tickets are free of charge.

*USE OF COPYRIGHT WORKS FOR THE
PURPOSE OF INFORMING THE PUBLIC*

Article 89

- (1) It shall be permitted, to the extent necessary for informing the public on current events by press, radio or television, to reproduce, to distribute and to communicate to the public:
1. works that are part of current event that is being reported on, provided that the work is used to the extent justified by the purpose and manner of reporting on current events;
 2. newspapers' articles on and photographs of current political, economical or religious topics, which are released through other media of public communication, provided that the author has not expressly prohibited such use, and that the work is used to the extent justified by the purpose and manner of reporting;
 3. public political, religious or other speeches made at state or local governmental bodies, religious institutions or at state or religious ceremonies, as well as excerpts from public presentations;
- (2) In all the cases referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the source and authorship shall be indicated.

QUOTATIONS

Article 90

It shall be permitted to make quotations of excerpts from a copyright work, which has already been lawfully made available to the public for purposes of scientific research, teaching, criticism, polemics, revision, review to the extent justified by the purpose to be achieved and in accordance with fair practice, provided that the source and the name of the author are indicated.

REPRODUCTION OF COPYRIGHT WORKS PERMANENTLY LOCATED IN PUBLIC PLACES

Article 91

- (1) It shall be permitted to reproduce the works, which are permanently located on streets, squares, parks or other places that are accessible to the public, and to distribute and communicate to the public such reproductions.

- (2) The works referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article may not be reproduced in a three-dimensional form.
- (3) The source and authorship shall be indicated on the copies referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, unless such indication is not possible.

REPRODUCTION OF ARCHITECTURAL STRUCTURE

Article 92

The provisions referred to in Article 91, paragraph (1) of this Act shall apply only in respect of outer appearance of the architectural structure.

POSTERS AND CATALOGUES

Article 93

- (1) To organizers of public exhibitions or auctions it shall be permitted, for the purpose of promoting and to the extent necessary for such purpose, to reproduce on posters and in catalogues for such exhibitions or auctions, and to distribute by means of such posters and catalogues the works of visual arts, architecture, applied art, industrial designs and photographic works, which are displayed at a public exhibition or auction or are intended for such display.
- (2) In the catalogues referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the source and authorship shall be indicated.

PARODIES AND CARICATURES

Article 94

It shall be permitted to transform the work into a parody or caricature to the extent necessary for the purpose thereof, by indicating the work being transformed and its author.

*USE OF COPYRIGHT WORKS FOR THE
PURPOSE OF PRESENTATION AND TESTING OF EQUIPMENT*

Article 95

Shops which sell phonograms or videograms, or equipment for audio and video reproduction or reception, shall be allowed to record the works on audio, video or text fixation mediums, to communicate the works from such mediums, as well as to communicate the broadcast works, to the extent necessary for presenting to direct buyers or for testing the functioning of phonograms or films or for the repair thereof.

ERASURE OF RECORDINGS

Article 96

The recordings made pursuant to the provision referred to in Article 95 of this Act shall be erased without delay.

USE OF A DATABASE

Article 97

- (1) A lawful user of a database or of a copy thereof shall be allowed to perform all acts of using, if this is necessary for the access to the content of the database and its normal use.
- (2) If a user is authorized only in respect of a part of the database, he shall be allowed to reproduce and alter only that part.
- (3) Any contractual provision contrary to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall be null and void.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE RIGHT HOLDER

Article 98

- (1) Where the use of a copyright work without the author's authorization is allowed under Articles 82 - 87 of this Act, and where the use of the work or the access to it are prevented by the application of technological measures referred to in Article 175 of this Act, the authors or other persons, who applied such measures or who are authorized or have the possibility to remove them, shall be obliged, by providing special measures or concluding contracts, to enable the users or their associations access to such works and the use thereof in accordance with the limitations referred to in Articles 82 - 87 of this Act. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to computer programs.
- (2) If the right holders or other persons referred to in the previous paragraph fail to comply with the provisions laid down in paragraph (1) of this Article, the works shall be used by the application of measures prescribed by the Minister competent for the State Intellectual Property Office (hereinafter: the Minister).
- (3) The technological measures applied voluntarily by right holders under this Act, including those applied in implementation of voluntary agreements, and technological measures applied in implementation of measures referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall enjoy the legal protection under Article 175 paragraph (1) of this Article.

- (4) The provisions referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply to works made available to the public on agreed contractual terms in such a way that members of the public may access them from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.

Chapter 7 TIME LIMITATIONS OF COPYRIGHT

GENERAL PROVISIONS ON DURATION OF COPYRIGHT

Article 99

Copyright shall run for the life of the author and for 70 years after his death, irrespective of the date when the work is lawfully released, unless otherwise provided by this Act.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT FOR CO-AUTHORS' WORK

Article 100

- (1) If the co-authors referred to in Article 11 of this Act are the holders of joint copyright in the created work, the term referred to in Article 99 of this Act shall be calculated from the death of last surviving co-author.
- (2) For audiovisual works, the term referred to in Article 99 of this Act shall be calculated from the death of the last of the following persons to survive: the principal director, the author of the screen play, the author of the dialogue, and the composer of music specifically created for use in the audiovisual work.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT FOR ANONYMOUS WORK

Article 101

Copyright in anonymous works shall run for 70 years after the work has been lawfully disclosed. If the author discloses his identity during such period, the term of protection set out in Article 99 of this Act shall apply.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT FOR PSEUDONYMOUS WORK

Article 102

Copyright in pseudonymous works shall run for 70 years after the work is lawfully disclosed. Where a pseudonym leaves no doubt as to the identity of the author, the term of protection set out in Article 99 of this Act shall apply.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT FOR THE WORK DISCLOSED IN SERIES

Article 103

Where a work is disclosed in volumes, parts, instalments, issues or episodes and the term of protection runs from the time when the work was lawfully disclosed, the term of protection shall run for each such item separately.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT FOR UNDISCLOSED WORK

Article 104

Where the term of protection is not calculated from the death of the author, and where the work has not been lawfully disclosed, the copyright shall expire upon the expiration of a period of seventy years from the creation of the work.

CALCULATION OF TERMS

Article 105

Terms of copyright laid down in this Act shall be calculated from the first day of January of the year following the year in which the relevant event has occurred.

EFFECTS OF EXPIRATION OF TERMS

Article 106

- (1) By the expiration of copyright, a copyright work shall become a public good, and may be used freely, with the obligation of recognizing authorship, paying respect to the work, and to the honour or reputation of the author.
- (2) Against those who do not comply with the obligation referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article the author's heirs, the associations of the authors the author belonged to, other persons having legal interest in it and the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, shall be entitled to demand the termination of infringement of such obligation.

Chapter 8
SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR COMPUTER
PROGRAMS AND AUDIOVISUAL WORKS

8.1. Special provisions for computer programs

SUBJECT MATTER OF PROTECTION

Article 107

A computer program, under this Act, shall be protected as the work of language if it is original in the sense that it is the author's own intellectual creation. The term "computer program" shall comprise the expression of a computer program in any form, including its preparatory design material. Ideas and principles, which underlie any element of a computer program, including those which underlie its interfaces, shall not be protected by copyright.

COMPUTER PROGRAM CREATED IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

Article 108

If a computer program is created by an employee in the execution of his duties or following the instructions given by his employer, the employer exclusively shall be entitled to exercise all the economic rights in the program so created, unless otherwise provided by a contract.

RIGHT OF THE AUTHOR OF COMPUTER PROGRAM

Article 109

- (1) The author of a computer program shall have, according to the provisions of Chapter 3, Title II of this Act, the exclusive right to do or to authorize:
 1. the permanent or temporary reproduction of a computer program by any means and in any form, in part or in whole; this includes loading, displaying, running, transmission or storage of a computer program which necessitate its reproduction;
 2. the translation, adaptation, arrangement and any other alteration of a computer program, and the reproduction of the results thereof, without prejudice to the right of the person who alters the program;
 3. any form of distribution of the original or copies of a computer program, including the rental thereof.
- (2) The provisions of Articles 17, 32 and 82 of this Act shall not apply to computer programs. Computer programs shall not be subject to public lending, unless otherwise provided by a contract.

EXCEPTIONS

Article 110

- (1) In the absence of specific contractual provisions the acts referred to in Article 109, paragraph (1), items 1 and 2 of this Act, shall not require authorization by the right holder, where they are necessary for the use of the computer program by the lawful acquirer in accordance with its intended purpose, including for error correction.
- (2) The making of a back-up copy by a person having a right to use the computer program may not be prevented by a contract insofar as it is necessary for that use.
- (3) The person having a right to use a copy of a computer program shall be entitled, without the authorization of the author, to observe, study or test the functioning of a program in order to determine the ideas and principles that underlie any element of the program, if he does so while performing any of the acts of loading, displaying, running, transmitting or storing the program which he is entitled to do.
- (4) Any contractual provision contrary to the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article shall be null and void.

DECOMPILATION

Article 111

- (1) If the reproduction of the code and translation of its form, according to the provision of Article 109, paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Act, are indispensable to obtain the information necessary to achieve the interoperability of an independently created program with other programs, the authorization of the right holder shall not be required, provided that:
 1. these acts are performed by the authorization for use or by another person having a right to use a copy of a program, or on their behalf, by a person authorized to do so,
 2. the information necessary to achieve interoperability has not previously been readily available to the persons referred to in item 1 of this paragraph, and

3. these acts are confined only to those parts of the original program which are necessary to achieve interoperability.

- (2) Information obtained through application of the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article may not be:
 1. used for goals other than to achieve the interoperability of the independently created computer program;
 2. transferred to other persons, except when necessary for achieving the interoperability of the independently created program; or
 3. used for the development, production or marketing of another program substantially similar in its expression, or for any other act that infringes copyright.
- (3) The provisions of this Article may not be interpreted in such a way as to allow its application to be used in a manner that unreasonably prejudices legitimate interests of the right holder or conflicts with a normal use of the computer program.
- (4) Any contractual provision contrary to the provisions of this Article shall be null and void.

SPECIAL MEASURES OF PROTECTION

Article 112

Infringements of the rights in a computer program shall constitute, in particular:

1. any act of distribution of a copy of a computer program, knowing, or having reason to believe, that it is an infringing copy;
2. the possession, for commercial purposes, of a copy of a computer program, knowing, or having reason to believe, that it is an infringing copy;
3. any act of distribution, or the possession for commercial purposes, of any means the sole intended purpose of which is to facilitate the unauthorized removal or circumvention of a technical device serving as protection of a computer program.

OTHER LEGAL PROVISIONS*

Article 113

The provisions of this Act regarding the protection of computer programs shall be without prejudice to any other legal provisions, such as those regulating the protection of inventions by patents, protection of layout designs of semi-conductor products, trademarks, unfair competition, protection of business secrets or contractual obligations.

8.2. Special provisions for audiovisual works

AUDIOVISUAL WORKS

Article 114

Audiovisual works, under this Act, shall mean cinematographic, television, documentary, animated, advertising or other films, and other audiovisual works expressed by sequence of images giving the impression of movement, with or without a sound, irrespective of the type of the medium on which they are fixed.

AUDIOVISUAL ADAPTATION

Article 115

- (1) The right of adaptation of a copyright work into an audiovisual work (the right of audiovisual adaptation) shall be acquired by a contract on audiovisual adaptation. Unless otherwise provided by the contract it shall be considered that the exclusive right of audiovisual adaptation has been acquired.
- (2) If the right of adaptation of a copyright work has been acquired as the exclusive right, the author of the adapted work shall retain:
 1. the exclusive right of new audiovisual adaptations of the adapted work, which he may exercise after the expiration of twenty years from the conclusion of the contract referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article;
 2. the exclusive right of further alteration of the audiovisual work into any other artistic form;
 3. the right to an equitable remuneration for any rental of a videogram containing the adapted work.
- (3) The author cannot renounce the right referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article.

CO-AUTHORS OF AUDIOVISUAL WORK

Article 116

- (1) The following shall be considered as co-authors of an audiovisual work:
 1. the principal director,
 2. the author of screenplay,
 3. the author of dialogue,
 4. the principal cameraman,
 5. the composer of music specifically created for use in such work.
- (2) If a drawing or animation represents an essential element of an audiovisual work, the principal drawer or the principal animator shall be considered as a co-author of that work.
- (3) If another natural person proves that his original intellectual creation is an essential part of the audiovisual work and that he or she could be recognized as a co-author of that work under the general rules, this person will be recognized as a co-author of the audiovisual work.

AUTHORS OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO AUDIOVISUAL WORK

Article 117

A music composer, a principal drawer or a principal animator, who is not considered the co-author of an audiovisual work according to the provision laid down in Article 116 of this Act, a scenographer, a costume designer, a face makeup artist, an editor and other authors that participate in the creation of an audiovisual work, shall have the copyright in their individual contributions (authors of contributions).

CONTRACT ON AUDIOVISUAL PRODUCTION

Article 118

- (1) A contract on audiovisual production shall regulate the relations between the film producer, the co-authors of an audiovisual work and the authors of contributions thereof, as well as the relations between the authors of an audiovisual work.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided by the contract on audiovisual production between the film producer and the authors of contributions, it shall be considered that the film producer acquires all the economic rights of such authors to the extent necessary to fulfil the purpose of the contract.

- (3) If the co-authors have entrusted their right of rental to the film producer by the contract referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, they shall retain the right to an equitable remuneration for the rental of an audiovisual work.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions laid down in paragraph (2) of this Article, the authors of contributions shall retain the right to use individually their contributions to an audiovisual work, provided that the rights of film producers are not prejudiced thereby.
- (5) Co-authors of an audiovisual work cannot renounce the rights referred to in paragraph (3), and authors of contributions cannot renounce the rights referred to in paragraph (4) of this Article.
- (6) The provisions of Article 17, Article 47, paragraph (1), and Article 48 of this Act shall not apply to audiovisual works.

REPORT ON REMUNERATION FOR RIGHTS TO AUDIOVISUAL WORK

Article 119

The film producer of an audiovisual work must at least once a year submit to the co-authors a report on the profits for each form of use of the work.

COMPLETED AUDIOVISUAL WORK

Article 120

- (1) An audiovisual work shall be deemed completed when, according to the agreement between the principal director and the film producer, the first standard copy of the work, which is the subject matter of the contract on production, is finished.
- (2) The destruction of the master of the first standard copy of the audiovisual work shall be prohibited.
- (3) If any of the co-authors or authors of contribution refuses to continue to collaborate in creation of the audiovisual work, or if he is unable to continue to collaborate due to force majeure, he may not oppose to the use of his contribution already made, for the purpose of completion of such work. Such author shall have respective copyright as to the contribution to the audiovisual work he has already made.

RESCINDING OF CONTRACT

Article 121

- (1) If a film producer of an audiovisual work does not complete the work within five years from the conclusion of the contract on the audiovisual production of such work, or if he does not distribute the completed work within two years from the time of its completion, the co-authors may demand that the contract be rescinded, unless any other term has been stipulated in the contract.
- (2) In the case referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the co-authors and authors of contributions retain the right to obtain remuneration.

III. RELATED RIGHTS

Chapter 1
RIGHTS OF PERFORMERS

PERFORMERS

Article 122

A director of theatrical performance and a conductor of an artistic ensemble shall be also deemed performers.

REPRESENTATIVE OF AN ARTISTIC ENSEMBLE

Article 123

- (1) Performers who are members of an artistic ensemble may authorize, in a written form, one of their members or a third person to represent them in the exercise of their performer's right.
- (2) The authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall require the consent of the majority of members of an artistic ensemble, unless otherwise provided by the internal rules of the ensemble. It shall be deemed that performers who are not members of an ensemble but participate in a particular performance of that ensemble also have given their consent.
- (3) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply to conductors, soloists, directors of theatrical performances and players of leading roles, who are not members of the ensemble, unless otherwise agreed between them and the artistic ensemble.

MORAL RIGHTS OF PERFORMERS

Article 124

- (1) A performer shall have the right to be recognized and indicated as such, that is, to decide whether his name, or other indication of his identity will be indicated at the time his performance is used.
- (2) A person who publicly uses a performance shall at any use indicate a performer, except where the performer declares in a written form that he does not want to be indicated as such.
- (3) A performer shall be deemed a person whose name, pseudonym, artist's mark or code is regularly indicated on the copies of a performance or at its disclosure, until proven to the contrary.
- (4) A performer shall have the right to oppose to any destruction, distortion, mutilation or similar modification of his performance, and any use of the performance, which is jeopardizing or might jeopardize his honour or reputation.

EXCLUSIVE ECONOMIC RIGHTS OF PERFORMERS

Article 125

A performer shall have the exclusive right:

1. to fix his unfixed performance;
2. to reproduce his fixed performance;
3. to distribute, including the rental, of his fixed performance;
4. to communicate to the public his unfixed and fixed performance including in particular:
 - the right of broadcasting and rebroadcasting
 - the right of public communication of fixed performances and broadcasting
 - the right of public transmission
 - the right of public presentation
 - the right of making available to the public

REMUNERATION FOR RENTAL

Article 126

A performer, who entrusts his rental right to a producer of phonograms or to a film producer, shall retain his right to an equitable remuneration for the rental of his fixed performance. The performer may not renounce the right to an equitable remuneration. A remuneration for the rental shall be paid by the person renting the performance.

REMUNERATION FOR BROADCASTING AND PUBLIC COMMUNICATION OF A PERFORMANCE

Article 127

- (1) A performer shall be entitled to a share in a single equitable remuneration for broadcasting and any other communication to the public of his fixed performance.
- (2) The single equitable remuneration referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article consists of individual remunerations which belong to the performers and the producers of phonograms.

RIGHT TO REMUNERATION

Article 128

- (1) A performer shall be entitled to an equitable remuneration for any audio or audiovisual recording of his fixed performance for private or other personal use, as referred to in Article 32, paragraph (1) of this Act.
- (2) A performer shall be entitled to an equitable remuneration, where his fixed performance in respect of which further distribution is allowed is lent by intermediary of public libraries. The provisions of Article 33 paragraphs (2) and (4) of this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to such right.

USE OF PERFORMANCE FOR COMPLETION OF AUDIOVISUAL WORK

Article 129

If a performer refuses to complete his performance in an audiovisual work, or if he is unable to do so due to force majeure, he may not oppose to the use of his performance already made, for the purpose of completion of such audiovisual work. Such a performer shall have adequate rights as to the contribution he has already made.

PERFORMANCE GIVEN IN THE FRAMEWORK OF AN EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

Article 130

- (1) A performance made in the course of employment shall, under this Act, mean a performance given by a performer - an employee in the execution of his duties with a certain employer or following the instructions given by him. The relations in respect to a performance given in the course of employment shall be regulated by this Act, by an employment contract, or any other act regulating employment.
- (2) If a performance is given in the course of employment, the employment contract shall specify, among other things, whether the employer acquires the right to use the performance, and if he acquires it, it shall specify in particular, the scope and duration of such right. Unless otherwise provided by this Act, or by an employment contract or by other act regulating employment, the performer's right in the performance shall be retained by the performer without limitations.

DURATION OF RIGHTS

Article 131

The economic rights of a performer shall run for 50 years as from the date of the performance. If, within this term, a fixation of the performance has been lawfully published or lawfully communicated to the public, the rights shall run for 50 years as from the date of the first such publication or from the first such communication to the public, whichever occurred earlier.

RIGHT OF PRODUCERS OF PHONOGRAMS

DEFINITIONS

Article 132

- (1) A phonogram shall mean the fixation of the sounds of a performance or of other sounds or of representations of sounds, other than in the form of fixations incorporated in audiovisual works. Fixation, within the meaning of this Article, shall mean the embodiment of sounds, or of the representations thereof, in a medium from which they can be listened, reproduced or communicated through a device. The rights in a phonogram are not in any way limited with its embodiment in a videogram.

- (2) Producer of phonograms, under this Act, shall be a natural or a legal person, who or which takes the initiative and has the responsibility for the first fixation of the sounds of a performance or of other sounds or of the representations of sounds. - (2) If the remuneration is not fixed in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article, it shall be paid according to the tariffs adopted by a collective rights management association.
- (3) Collective rights management associations shall, prior to adopting their tariffs, submit the proposal thereof for consideration to and the declaration by the Croatian Chamber of Economy, the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts (hereinafter referred to as: the Chambers) and the associations of broadcasting organizations gathering the majority of users of subject matters of protection (hereinafter: the Associations of Broadcasting Organizations).
- (4) If the Chambers and Associations of Broadcasting Organizations fail to furnish a written declaration to a collective rights management association within 30 days, it shall be deemed that they do not oppose to the proposed tariffs.
- (5) If a collective rights management association does not accept or only partially accepts the objections of the Chambers, and Associations of Broadcasting Organizations it shall, within 15 days following the receipt of such written objections, request the Council of Experts Dealing with Remunerations for Copyright and Related Rights (hereinafter referred to as: the Council of Experts) for their opinion on the subject matter of disagreement. The Council of Experts shall, within 30 days following the receipt of objections, render its opinion.

- (6) Until the procedure for adopting the tariffs referred to in paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) of this Article is completed, the remuneration shall be paid in accordance with the approved tariffs or as an advance payment according to the proposed tariffs if the tariffs for particular subject matter of protection are not approved.
- (7) The opinion of the Council of Experts referred to in paragraph (5) of this Article shall contain its evaluation of whether the tariffs relate to the rights for management of which a collective rights management association has the authorization granted by the Office, and whether the remuneration conform to the principles referred to in Article 165 of this Act. If the Council of Experts fails to give its opinion within the period referred to in paragraph (5) of this Article, it shall be deemed that it agrees with the proposed tariffs.
- (8) After the completion of the procedures referred to in this Article, the tariffs shall be published in the Official Gazette of the State Intellectual Property Office.

MEDIATION

Article 163

- (1) The Council of Experts shall also act as a mediator between the broadcasting organizations and cable operators in the cases of conclusion of contracts on cable retransmission.
- (2) If the broadcasting organization and a cable operator fail to agree on the contents of the contract on cable retransmission of a broadcast of such broadcasting organization, each of the mentioned parties may call upon the mediation of the Council of Experts in respect of the conclusion of this contract. The Council of Experts will, as a mediator in negotiations, assist the parties to achieve the agreement. The Council of Experts shall be authorized to submit proposals to the parties concerning the regulation of their mutual relations. The proposals shall be submitted in person, or by registered mail. If none of the parties expresses its opposition by registered post within three months as from the receipt of the proposal, it shall be considered that both parties accept such proposal, and are required to include it in the contract on cable retransmission.

- (3) The broadcasting organization and the cable operator shall enter, conduct and finish negotiations regarding a contract on cable retransmission in good faith. They shall be liable for any abuse of negotiations or negotiating positions, or their rights in compliance with the general legislation.

STRUCTURE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COUNCIL OF EXPERTS

Article 164

- (1) The Council of Experts shall consist of a president and four members. They shall be appointed by the Government of the Republic of Croatia, on the proposal by the minister, for a period of four years. A president and the members shall be selected from among the renowned experts, who may contribute to the achievement of objectives of the Council of Experts owing to their prior accomplishments and expertise in issues related to the implementation of copyright and related rights.
- (2) The minister shall initiate the procedure of election of the president and members, by a public invitation.
- (3) If the minister considers that the proposed candidates are not adequate to assure the appropriate structure of the Council of Experts, he may repeat the election procedure.
- (4) The Council of Experts renders its opinions on a session by the majority of votes of all its members.
- (5) The Council of Experts may, prior to delivering its opinions, invite other competent persons having expertise in certain issues, to attend the sessions, without the right to vote. The sessions of the Council of Experts may also be attended, without the right to vote by the officials and other employees of the Office dealing with the subject matter of the session.
- (6) The president, the members of the Council of Experts as well as the invited experts shall have the right to a remuneration for their work. The remuneration shall be paid by the parties involved in the respecting matter in the equal shares, unless otherwise decided by the Council of Experts.

- (7) The Council of Experts shall adopt its Rules of Procedure. The amount of the remuneration referred to in paragraph (6) of this Article shall be prescribed by the minister.

PRINCIPLES FOR ESTABLISHING THE AMOUNT OF REMUNERATION BY TARIFFS

Article 165

- (1) If the use of the subject matter of protection is essential for the activity of a user in a way that its activity depends on such use, as it is in cases of broadcastings, concert, dance or other uses of the subject matter against payment, the amount of remunerations shall be fixed in principle as a percentage of the income or earning from such use.
- (2) If the use of the subject matter of protection results with no income or earning, the amount of remunerations may be fixed as a percentage of expenses of the use, such as remunerations or salaries of performers, or expenses incurred for the utilization of premises, or other like expenses.
- (3) In addition to the remunerations fixed as a percentage, the minimum amount of remunerations shall be specified.
- (4) If a user fails to submit to a collective rights management association the information required for fixing the remunerations as a percentage, such association may establish the amount of remunerations according to information collected in compliance with Article 161 of this Act.
- (5) If the use of the subject matter of protection is not essential for a user, but is useful or enjoyable (accommodation facilities, exposition places, transport means and certain catering objects) the amount of remunerations shall be set as a lump sum for permanent and occasional uses.
- (6) When deciding on the amount of a lump sum and remunerations referred to in paragraph (3) of this Article, circumstances of the use of the subject matter of protection shall be taken into account, such as the type of the use, place and geographical location, category and size of the facilities, duration and number of the uses, and difference in prices regarding a user's business.

DISTRIBUTION OF REMUNERATIONS

Article 166

- (1) The distribution of collected remunerations to the right holders shall be generally carried out in accordance with the information on the use of the subject matter of protection.
- (2) A user shall submit to a collective rights management association complete information concerning the place and time of the use of a particular subject matter of protection for the reason of distribution of collected remunerations, within a time limit stipulated in a contract on use. If such contractual provision does not exist, a user shall submit such information to a collective rights management association within 15 days from the date of the use.
- (3) If distribution based on the information on the use is not possible, or if such distribution would obviously be uneconomical, the distribution may be carried out by the application of a method of sampling corresponding to the greatest extent to the actual use.

RULES RELATING TO THE DISTRIBUTION OF REMUNERATIONS

Article 167

- (1) A collective rights management association shall have rules relating to the distribution of collected remunerations adopted by a body established by the statute of that association.
- (2) The rules shall contain in particular provisions concerning:
 - subject matter of protection and right holders to which the rules apply;
 - determination of a share of a particular right holder in collected remunerations, which may stimulate the subject matters of protection of a particular value for culture and national creativity;
 - determination of amounts to be paid after the deduction of cost incurred in managing of the right, the allocation for funds envisaged by law, the statute of the association or by international contracts on mutual representation of collective rights management associations;

- terms for accounting and payment of distributed remunerations.

- (3) The collected remunerations shall be only used in accordance with the rules referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article.
- (4) Contracts on distribution concluded between the right holders of the same work shall override the rules of distribution.
- (5) Total costs of a collective rights management association may amount to no more than 30% of the collected remunerations.
- (6) Accounting and distribution of remunerations shall be carried out at least once a year.
- (7) General statement of account regarding distribution shall be established by a competent body of an association, and audited and evaluated by an authorized auditor.
- (8) An association shall deliver to the Office its statement of account regarding distribution referred to in paragraph (7) of this Article within 15 days as from receipt of the auditing report.

SUPERVISION OF USE OF THE SUBJECT MATTER OF PROTECTION

Article 168

- (1) A collective rights management association may supervise the use of the subject matter of protection in respect of which it has the authorization granted by the Office.
- (2) Users of the subject matter of protection shall provide a collective rights management association with information relevant for the management of rights, and enable the inspection of relevant documents.
- (3) At a request of a collective rights management association, the state administration bodies responsible for inspections, and the customs services, as well as, competent police administrations and police stations shall provide assistance to the collective rights management association in exercising supervision referred to in paragraph (1).
- (4) At a request of an author, or a collective rights management association the competent police administration or a police station shall prohibit a performance at which subject matters of protection are used, if its organizer does not have the authorization of the author, that is, of a collective rights management association.

ACTIVITIES OF THE OFFICE WITH REGARD TO THE COLLECTIVE MANAGEMENT OF RIGHTS

Article 169

- (1) The Office shall grant authorizations to the collective rights management associations referred to in Article 157 of this Act.
- (2) The Minister shall prescribe the professional criteria and procedure of granting the authorizations referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (3) The Office shall keep the records of the collective rights management associations.
- (4) The Office shall revoke the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, if an association ceased to comply with the prescribed criteria, and if seriously and repeatedly violates the provisions of this Act. In such case, prior notice in writing shall be given to the collective rights management association by the Office, and the Office shall set a time limit of 30 days for the collective rights management association to eliminate the found irregularities.
- (5) A decision on the grant of the authorization for collective management, and a decision of revocation of such authorization shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Office. The revocation of the authorization referred to in paragraph (4) of this Article shall take effect on the 30th day following its publication.
- (6) The Office conducts inspection of the work of the collective rights management associations.

INSPECTION AUTHORIZATIONS

Article 170

- (1) When conducting the inspection referred to in Article 169, paragraph (6) of this Act, an employer of the Office, responsible for carrying out inspection procedure (hereinafter: the inspector) shall be authorized to require insight in the documents and business records regarding the collective management of rights.

- (2) If during the inspection the inspector finds that a collective rights management association manages the rights contrary to the issued decision or contrary to the provisions of this Act, he shall, in the form of a decision, order such deficiencies and irregularities to be eliminated, within a certain time limit.
- (3) If the deficiencies and irregularities are not eliminated within the prescribed time limit, the inspector shall file a request for the initiation of a misdemeanour procedure in respect of the offence referred to in Article 191 of this Act, or he shall revoke the authorization referred to in Article 169, paragraph (4) of this Act.
- (4) Based on a report on the matter, the inspector may file a request for the misdemeanour procedure on the basis of his finding, and irrespective of the time limit prescribed in the decision for the elimination of deficiencies.
- (5) The inspector shall inform the state administration office, keeping the entry of the association in the register of associations, about the taken measures set out in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this Article.

PROFESSIONAL AND OTHER ACTIVITIES OF THE OFFICE

Article 171

The Office shall perform professional, technical and administrative activities related to the establishment and operation of the Council of Experts Dealing with Remunerations for Copyright or Related Rights, and other activities within its competence in this field.

V. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS IN THE CASE OF THE INFRINGEMENT

RIGHT TO PROTECTION

Article 172

- (1) The holder of a right under this Act, which has been unlawfully infringed shall be entitled to protection of such right.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided by this Act, the right to protection referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall entitle its holder to claim from the person who has infringed his right or from her/his general successor to desist from acts infringing such right, and further omission of such and the like acts (cease of disturbance), remedy of damages (compensation for damages), payment of compensation for unauthorized use, payment of penalty provided by law, return of all the benefits acquired unjustly by infringements of rights (return of unjustly acquired benefits), establishment of the committed infringement and the publication of the valid judgment by which the court has even partially complied with the claim for the protection of the right under this Act.

- (3) In addition to the original right holder under this Act, entitled to adequate protection shall also be the persons who have acquired a right derived from such rights on the basis of a legal transaction, and in compliance with the contents and nature of such derived right.
- (4) The right to protection shall pass on to heirs.
- (5) Where there are several holders of the same right under this Act, each of them is entitled to the protection of his right against other holders.
- (6) Provisions laid down in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article shall also apply mutatis mutandis where there is a likelihood of infringement of such rights.
- (7) Creations resulting from the infringement of rights under this Act shall not enjoy protection provided by this Act.
- (8) The provisions of this Article shall not affect the claims provided by other provisions of this Act.

SOLIDARITY

Article 173

- (1) Where a right under this Act has been infringed each of the right holders of the same right may claim protection of the infringed right against third persons as if he is the only right holder, unless otherwise provided by this Act. He may claim the furnishing of a complete file from third persons only according to obligatory rules on undivided obligations. When the infringer meets the demands of one of the right holders, his liability towards the other right holders of the same rights, also terminates. In case of a pending court proceeding, the right holders of the same rights shall be considered to be a single party in such proceeding.

- (2) If several persons have jointly infringed any of the rights under this Act, their liability shall be joint and several.

*PROTECTION OF RIGHTS MANAGED
COLLECTIVELY AND EVIDENCE OF THE INFRINGEMENT THEREOF*

Article 174

- (1) Collective rights management associations shall be entitled to initiate and carry out in their own name court and administrative proceedings for the protection of such rights, under this Act, which they have been granted authorization to manage collectively.
- (2) Where the collective rights management association proves an infringement of the rights which, under this Act, it is authorized to manage collectively, the infringement of the rights of individual right holders managed collectively shall not be necessarily established.

PROTECTION OF TECHNOLOGICAL MEASURES

Article 175

- (1) The circumvention of effective technological measures designed to protect the rights provided by this Act shall represent the infringement of such rights, unless otherwise specially provided by this Act.
- (2) The circumvention of technological measures shall also mean, under this Act, manufacture, import, distribution, sale, rental, advertisement for sale or rental, or possession for commercial purposes of technology, computer programs, devices, products or components, or the provision of services which:
- are promoted, advertised or marketed for the purpose of circumvention of technological measures,
 - have only a limited commercially significant purpose or use other than to circumvent technological measures,
 - are primarily designed, produced, adapted or performed for the purpose of enabling or facilitating the circumvention of effective technological measures.
- (3) A request may be filed against a person who knew or had reasonable grounds to know that she or he was circumventing or enabling the circumvention of technological measures. It shall be considered that the person who acts in the manner described in paragraph (2) of this Article has reasonable grounds to know that she or he is circumventing or enabling the circumvention of technological measures.

- (4) For the purposes of this Act, technological measures shall mean any technology, computer program, device, product or component thereof that in the normal course of its operation is designed to prevent or restrict acts, which are not authorized by the right holder under this Act. The technological measures shall be considered effective where the use of copyright works or subject matters of related rights is restricted by the right holders under this Act through the application of an access control or a protection process, such as encryption, scrambling or other alteration of the work or other subject matter or a copy control mechanism, which achieves the protection objective.
- (5) The provisions of this Article shall not apply to computer programs.

PROTECTION OF RIGHTS-MANAGEMENT INFORMATION

Article 176

- (1) Copyright and related rights under this Act, shall be also infringed by a person who knowingly, without authority, removes or alters any electronic right-management information, produces, distributes, imports for the purpose of putting them on the market, broadcasts, communicates to the public or makes available to the public a copyright work and subject matter of related rights from which the electronic right-management information has been removed or altered without the authorization of a right holder, and who knows or has reasonable grounds to know that she or he causes, enables, facilitates or conceals the infringements of the rights under this Act.
- (2) Right-management information, under this Act, shall mean, any information provided by the right holders identifying a copyright work or a subject matter of related rights, the right holder, the terms and conditions for use, and their relevant numbers and codes, where they are indicated on a copy of a copyright work or subject matter of related rights under this Act or when they appear in connection with their communication to the public.

CLAIM FOR CESSATION OF INFRINGEMENT

Article 177

- (1) A right holder under this Act whose right has been infringed may claim the cessation and the prohibition of such or like future infringements.
- (2) To exercise his right referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, it shall be sufficient that the right holder invokes it, and proves that the defendant disturbs him. If the defendant claims that he has the right to undertake the actions that disturb the right holder, he shall prove it.

CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION OF DAMAGES

Article 178

If the infringement of any rights under this Act resulted with damages, the right holder is entitled to claim compensation for damages, in accordance with the general rules on compensation for damages.

CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE AND CLAIM FOR BENEFITS ACQUIRED BY UNAUTHORIZED USE

Article 179

- (1) If the unauthorized use of a work or a subject matter of related rights has infringed the right of a right holder under this Act, the right holder or a collective rights management association managing respective rights may claim remuneration which is usually obtained for such use or remuneration prescribed by the tariffs referred to in Article 162, paragraph (2) of this Act.
- (2) The right which is managed collectively shall be considered infringed as described in paragraph (1) of this Article, where the work or the subject matter of related rights are used without a contract or without the authorization of a collective rights management association or where a contract or an authorization are not valid.
- (3) If the unlawful use of any rights under this Act resulted in a benefit, the right holder shall be entitled to claim the benefit so acquired, in accordance with the general rules on unjustified acquisition.

CLAIM FOR PUBLICATION OF COURT DECISION

Article 180

A person whose right under this Act has been infringed, shall be entitled to claim that a valid court decision, complying even partially with the claim for the protection of such right, be published in public media at the infringer's expense. The court shall, at the plaintiff's proposal, decide in what public medium the decision shall be published and whether the decision would be published entirely or partially. If the court decides that only a part of its decision shall be published, it shall be at least a sentence, and the part of the decision indicating the kind of the infringement and the infringer of the respective right.

CLAIM FOR DESTRUCTION, ALTERATION OR DELIVERY OF COPIES RESULTING FROM INFRINGEMENT AND OBJECTS BY MEANS OF WHICH INFRINGEMENT IS COMMITTED

Article 181

- (1) The holder whose exclusive right under this Act has been infringed is entitled to claim the destruction or alteration of all the unlawfully made copies or such copies put on the market or intended to be put on the market.
- (2) Instead of the measure referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the person whose right under this Act has been infringed is entitled to claim that the infringer who is in possession of the copies referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article or is their owner, deliver such copies against compensation which shall not exceed the costs of the manufacture thereof.
- (3) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall apply to architectural works only where there is a specially justified reason for the destruction or delivery thereof.
- (4) If the measures referred to in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article are in a certain case disproportional with the nature and intensity of the infringement, and the infringement may be repaired otherwise, the court may order other necessary measures for such a case. In such a case, the right holder is entitled at least to remuneration in the amount not lesser than he would obtain for the authorized use of the respective right.
- (5) The measures referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply to separable parts of copies, the manufacture and putting on the market of which are not unlawful.

- (6) The provisions of this Article shall apply mutatis mutandis also to the objects, which are used in or intended for the manufacture of copies, infringing the rights under this Act, or which are exclusively or predominantly intended for that purpose.
- (7) The provisions of this Article shall not apply if destruction of the objects referred to in paragraph (6) of this Article would cause greater damage than the damage caused by the infringement of the rights under this Act, unless it concerns the objects, which are exclusively or predominantly intended for the infringement of the rights under this Act.
- (8) The claims referred to in this Article in respect of third fair persons shall be subject to statute of limitations within 3 years following the date on which the right holder learned about the unlawful manufacture of the objects, or their putting on the market, or that they are intended for putting on the market, and not later than within 5 years as from the unlawful manufacture or putting on the market thereof.

CLAIM IN THE CASE OF INFRINGEMENT OF THE RIGHT COMPRISING THE
INDICATION OF THE AUTHOR AND PERFORMER

Article 182

- (1) In addition to other claims envisaged by this Act, the author and the performer, whose name, pseudonym or other artist's mark, is not indicated with the use of his copyright work or his performance, or is indicated incorrectly or insufficiently, may claim from persons using the work or performance, to indicate them subsequently and correctly as the author or the performer.
- (2) The provisions of the previous paragraph shall apply mutatis mutandis where, contrary to the prohibition, the author or the performer is indicated with the use of the work or with the use of the performance.
- (3) The author or the performer shall not be entitled to claims referred to in this Article, if the work or the performance is used with their authorization, and if that use is such that it prevents the indication of the author or the performer.

PENALTY

Article 183

- (1) The person whose economic right or the right under Chapter 3.3 Other Rights of Authors under this Act have been infringed intentionally or by gross negligence, is entitled to claim payment of up to a double amount of remuneration (penalty) which is contractually agreed upon or if not contractually agreed upon, of the corresponding regular remuneration for such use from the person who infringed his right intentionally or by gross negligence.
- (2) In the case referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article it may not be proven that the damage did not occur.
- (3) In case that the actual damage exceeds the amount of penalty referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the right holder has a right to claim the difference to full actual damages.

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Article 184

- (1) The right to protection of rights under this Act shall not be subject to the statute of limitations, unless otherwise provided by this Act.
- (2) The claims under this Act, which are by their nature obligatory, and for which special time limit as to statute of limitations is not provided, shall be subject to statute of limitations according to the general rules to that effect.

PROVISIONAL MEASURES

Article 185

- (1) At a proposal of an authorized person who makes it likely that a right under this Act has been infringed or that there is likelihood of imminent infringement of such rights, the court may order, in particular:
 - provisional seizure or exclusion from circulation of objects or means infringing such rights or serving for the infringement, or resulting from the infringement, or of objects and means that may serve as evidence of the committed infringement of such rights,
 - prohibition of continuation of acts which might infringe such rights, or are infringing such rights,

- prohibition of a performance unlawfully using the rights provided by this Act.
- (2) The court shall order a proposed provisional measure, if the other party, at the invitation by the court, and upon the proposal of the authorized person, fails to submit the relevant document or other proof showing that she or he does not infringe the respective right.
 - (3) If there is a risk that the later presentation of evidence on the infringement of the rights under this Act may be difficult or prevented, or if there is a risk of irreparable damage, or if there is a demonstrable risk of ineffectiveness of provisional measures provided in paragraph (1) of this Article, the court shall order such measures without prior notification of the other party (inaudita altera parte).
 - (4) The corresponding provisions of the Execution Act shall be applied to any matter concerning the ordering of provisional measures, not regulated by this Act.
- (2) Where the person referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article fails to give the required information or evidences in his possession, she or he shall be liable for damages that may be caused by his failure to comply.
 - (3) The provision of paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply in respect of persons who would in a civil proceeding have the right to refuse to testify or to answer to particular questions.

“PROVISIONAL MEASURES COMPRISING THE PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

Article 185a

(1) Upon the request of the right holder under this Act who makes it likely that his right has been infringed or threatened to be infringed, the court may order a provisional measure comprising the preservation of evidence.

(2) By the provisional measure referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the court may order in particular:

- preparation of a detailed description of the goods made likely to infringe a right under this Act, with or without taking of samples;
- seizure of the goods made likely to infringe a right under this Act;
- seizure of the materials and implements used in the production and distribution of the goods made likely to infringe a right under this Act and the documentation relating thereto.

(3) The provisional measure referred to in this Article may be ordered even without informing the opposing party thereof, if the applicant for measures makes it likely that there is a risk of evidence being destroyed or irreparable damage of incurring. If a provisional measure is ordered without informing the opposing party thereof, the court shall communicate a decision on the provisional measure to the opposing party, promptly upon its enforcement.

(4) In the decision ordering a provisional measure the court shall specify the duration of the measure, and, if the measure has been ordered before the institution of a legal action, the period, within which the applicant for measures shall institute a legal action to justify the measure, which shall not be less than 20 working days and not more than 31 calendar days, from the date of communication of the decision to the applicant for measures, whichever expires later.

(5) The provisions of the Execution Act shall apply to matters, not regulated by this Article.

(6) The provisions of this Article shall be without prejudice to the possibility of the court to order provisional measures comprising the preservation of evidence pursuant to the provisions of the Act on Civil Proceedings.

TAKING OF EVIDENCE IN THE COURSE OF THE CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

Article 185b

(1) Where a party to the civil proceedings invokes evidence claiming that it lies with the opposing party or under its control, the court shall invite the opposing party to present such evidence within a specified time limit.

(2) Where the right holder under this Act as a plaintiff in a legal action claims that the infringement of the right conferred under this Act has been committed on a commercial scale for the purpose of acquiring commercial or economic benefit, and has made it likely during the proceedings, and where he invokes in the proceedings, banking, financial or similar economic documents, papers or the like evidence, claiming that they lie with the opposing party or under its control, the court shall invite the opposing party to present such evidence within a specified time limit.

(3) Where the party, which is invited to present evidence, denies that the evidence lies with it or under its control, the court may take evidence to establish such a fact.

(4) The provisions of the Act on Civil Proceedings relating to the right of refusal to present evidence as a witness shall apply mutatis mutandis to the right of the party to refuse to present evidence.

(5) The court shall, taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case, decide at its own discretion, on the importance of the fact that the party having the evidence refuses to comply with the court's decision ordering it to present evidence, or denies, contrary to the court's opinion, that the evidence lies with it.

(6) Against the decision of the court referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) a separate appeal shall not be allowable.

EXPEDITIOUS PROCEEDINGS AND APPLICATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF OTHER ACTS

Article 185c

(1) A procedure concerning the infringement of the rights conferred under this Act shall be expeditious.
