

Sowell -Sharyn-20050320080004

To: Julie L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/20/2005

From: Sharyn Sowell

Comment:

I am on the opposite end of the stick. I'm an artist who has come across my work which was stolen and applied to different products manufactured in China and then selling at major national retail chains. I happened to come across them and was glad to have had the protection of the law. Please do not weaken the law and leave artists vulnerable to those who would like to use our work without payment.