

I don't know what might be available but it is in the public interest to allow these items to be distributed. I would be especially interested in graphics images and the like since so many of the images sold nowadays are just repackaged works available to everyone who knows how to get them for free.

Br. Michael T. Bube, O.S.A.