

Owen-Shawn-20050225203005

To: Julie L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 02/25/2005

From: Shawn Owen

Comment:

We need to fix the law so that if the copyright holder cannot be located within a reasonable amount of time, say 90 days, the protected work becomes public domain. If copyright holders are serious about protecting their rights, then they will happily supply an easy contact for the copyright office so they may be contact in regards to licensing their works.