

L-Burstyn-Harold-20050301150003

To: Julie L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/01/2005

From: Harold L. Burstyn

Comment:

I had a client about ten years ago who was putting together a CD for schools on the Civil War. He wanted to use as background music Civil War songs (e.g., "Tenmting Tonight"). The songs themselves were out of copyright, but the recordings he wished to use were not, so he needed a synchronization license. Unfortunately he was unable to locate the owner of the copyright in the sound recording, so he had to give up.