My comment is simple. I am a genealogist who is not able to travel, but has found old books without copyright that I have used and tried to share with other genealogists on the web. The writers are long dead and descendants are not to be found.

Please do not make things harder and harder for us. I do genealogy for my grandchildren so that they will have more of a sense of "family" since families are breaking up more and more in this modern society.

It's a shame that the "few" these days seem to win out over the majority. Majority should still rule!
